Wild Game Meat

You can enjoy delicious venison cuisine.

Azumino Area

Wasabi

Azumino, featuring ample amounts of water maintained at a stable temperature, is ideally suited to cultivate wasabi and is one of the nation's leading wasabi-producing regions. Be sure to try some authentic wasabi.

Shinshu Salmon

"Shinshu Salmon," an original brand from Nagano, has a mild flavor and is highly recommended served as sashimi or over rice in a donburi (rice bowl).

Matsumoto & Shiojiri Area

Sanzokuyaki (Fried Chicken)

Chicken dish that has been marinated in garlic and soy sauce, coated with potato starch, and deep-fried.

Toji Soba

Enjoy this local dish by taking soba noodles from the dedicated basket and dipping them into this warm broth filled with meat and mountain vegetables. The name, Toji Soba, comes from the verb "tojiru," which means "to plunge or cast."

Eel

Okaya eel is filleted by slicing open the eel's back (Kanto-style) and grilled (Kansai-style), not steamed. The skin is crispy, the inside is fluffy, and the sweet, thick sauce is particularly distinct, creating "an unforgettable taste." You can, of course, enjoy this delicious dish at restaurants, but it is also highly recommended as a souvenir.

Miso Tendon

This unique Tendon features fresh shrimp, vegetables, and seasonal ingredients, fried as tempura and finished with a miso sauce made from Suwa miso.
